

SPAIN LOOKS FOR INTERNAL PEACE

Fall of Maura Cabinet is Hailed as Dawn of a Better Time.

CLERICAL POWER BELIEVED ROUTED

On All Sides the Change in Government Causes Rejoicing.

Madrid, Oct. 22.—The fall of Premier Maura and the conservative cabinet has produced a feeling of relief and encourages hope that a period of internal tranquility has been ushered in.

It is now an open secret that Maura's refusal to give King Alfonso an opportunity to pardon Ferrer is regretted by his majesty.

In an interview Moret y Prendergast, premier of the new liberal cabinet, explained that because of recent personal bereavements, he having lost by death his wife, his son and a daughter, and the fact of his advancing years, he had not wished to assume power.

Nevertheless the unfortunate situation at home and the distrust of the Spanish government as manifested abroad had convinced him that it was his patriotic duty to accept the leadership. He declared that the liberal government would exactly reverse the policy of Maura and maintain special order with due respect for the law.

Marks End of Clerical Influence.

Most of the republican senators and deputies express themselves as satisfied with the latest turn of events, particularly as they believe that it marks the end of clerical influence with the government. One of these said today:

"The new cabinet contains elements openly anti-clerical and thus it becomes possible to establish an anti-clerical policy so necessary to Spain."

However, radical members of the cortes, like Deputy Serano, who is also editor of Espana Nueva, announce an intention to fight the new ministry because of its alleged non-architectural tendencies. They predict a series of swift changes bringing about a situation like that which began with the insurrection in the fleet in 1868 and culminated in 1873 with the abdication of King Amadeus and the establishment of a short lived republic.

Rejoice Over Maura's Fall.

The liberal papers are filled today with rejoicings over what they term the end of the "tyrannical rule of Maura. The Elpais, a republican organ, hopes that the war in Morocco will be brought to a prompt and honorable conclusion, "to avoid the ruin of the country." Elpais demands the passage of anti-clerical laws similar to those of France.

Upon the receipt of the resignation of the premier and his ministers, Moret y Prendergast undertook to form a new ministry, himself assuming the post of premier and minister of the interior. The new ministers, who took the oath of office last night, are as follows:

Premier and Minister of the Interior—Moret y Prendergast.
Minister of Foreign Affairs—Perez Caballero.
Minister of Finance—Senor Alvarado.
Minister of War—Lieutenant General De Luque.
Minister of Marine—Rear Admiral Goncalves.
Minister of Public Works—Senor Gasset.
Minister of Public Instruction—Senor Barroso.
Minister of Justice—Martinez Del Campo.

CHANGE HAILED IN FRANCE.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The French press today hails with satisfaction the fall of the Maura cabinet in Spain and expresses the hope that the change of government marks the beginning of better days for that monarchy. The newspapers here are especially pleased that the possibility of Franco-Spanish complications regarding affairs in Morocco appears to have passed. The socialist papers consider that the defeat of the conservative government was due more to indignation manifested abroad than to the domestic situation.

TO IDENTIFY HEALER.

Photograph of Dead Schlatter is Sent to Denver.

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 22.—Denver will be called upon to identify Francis Schlatter, who died here Thursday morning, as the divine healer, who fifteen years ago made that city the mecca of the halt and the blind. A flash light picture of the body of the supposed divine healer was taken in the local morgue and was sent to Denver. A careful examination of the dead man's effects seems to bear out the statements Schlatter made before his death.

To Dr. E. A. Weil, city physician, Schlatter protested that he was the original divine healer. Apparently he expected to die, for several hours before death he told the physician in case he should not recover, to notify David McNaughton, Monroe street and Michigan avenue, Chicago, a dear friend. A telegram has been sent and known to have been delivered, but no answer has been received. A telegram was received last night from W. E. Chambers, of Omaha, who suggested that the body might be that of Schlatter. He said he would be in Hastings today to identify it if possible.

A woman's handkerchief was found in the man's grip bearing the name Emma Snodgrass, Portsmouth, Ohio. The handkerchief is the inscription, "Oct. 9, 1905."

TAFT IS STRONG FOR WATERWAYS

Declares Himself for Big System of Internal Improvements.

FAVORS ISSUE OF BONDS TO DO IT

Says Inland Waterways are Necessary to Control
Railway Rates.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Oct. 22.—In an open address here today before the Interstate Inland Waterways league and the citizens of Corpus Christi President Taft announced himself as strongly favoring a permanent and practical system of inland waterways as a means of controlling railroad rates, and said that he favored the policy of issuing bonds for carrying out a practical system of improvements.

Up to the present time, Mr. Taft declared, congress has provided for improvements in piece-meal fashion and the work on improvement has been nothing more than a "procession of jerks." Before any project is entered upon the president declared it should be thoroughly investigated and reported upon by a board of engineers as to its feasibility and desirability.

Once the improvement is declared desirable, the communities which it is to serve can convince congress that their growth has been such as to justify the expenditure of a large sum of money to take care of increasing trade, bonds should be issued in order that the improvements may be carried into effect at once and the benefits be secured.

The president said he could see no difference between improving inland waterways and digging the Panama canal.

Points Out the Dangers.

Mr. Taft referred to the fact that in the Ohio river improvements were under way to secure a nine foot stage from Pittsburg to Cairo. An inter-coastal nine foot canal, he declared, would be of great service to the entire country.

The president said he recognized the danger of issuing bonds indiscriminately and said the people must not lose sight of the fact that some day the bonds must be paid.

But he declared his great faith in the conservatism of congress and the American people, and he did not believe they would go into the improvement of waterways by means of a bond issue on a haphazard basis, but would conservatively calculate whether or not the time has arrived to do the work. He said that more than $600,000,000 have been spent on the improvements of waterways in the past.

Money Spent Piecemeal.

Instead of working toward a great avenue of commerce, however, the money had been spent in piecemeal projects provided by congress in response to a clamor from home or as a matter of party considerations. While improved waterways are best method of controlling railroad rates the president said they were not the only means and the interstate commerce laws should be amended so as to make these laws effective. The president said he did not believe in radical laws that would cripple railroads and he thought all wise persons should agree that the best policy is the square deal for the railroad, that they should be allowed rates that they ought to have and unpopular prejudice should not be permitted to deprive them of a reasonable profit.

"We are a funny people," remarked the president. "Before the railroad comes everybody is in favor of it. A month after it has come you can't find anybody in favor of it unless it be the local counsel."

NEAR END OF TEXAS VISIT.

President Will Start Today on Trip to St. Louis.

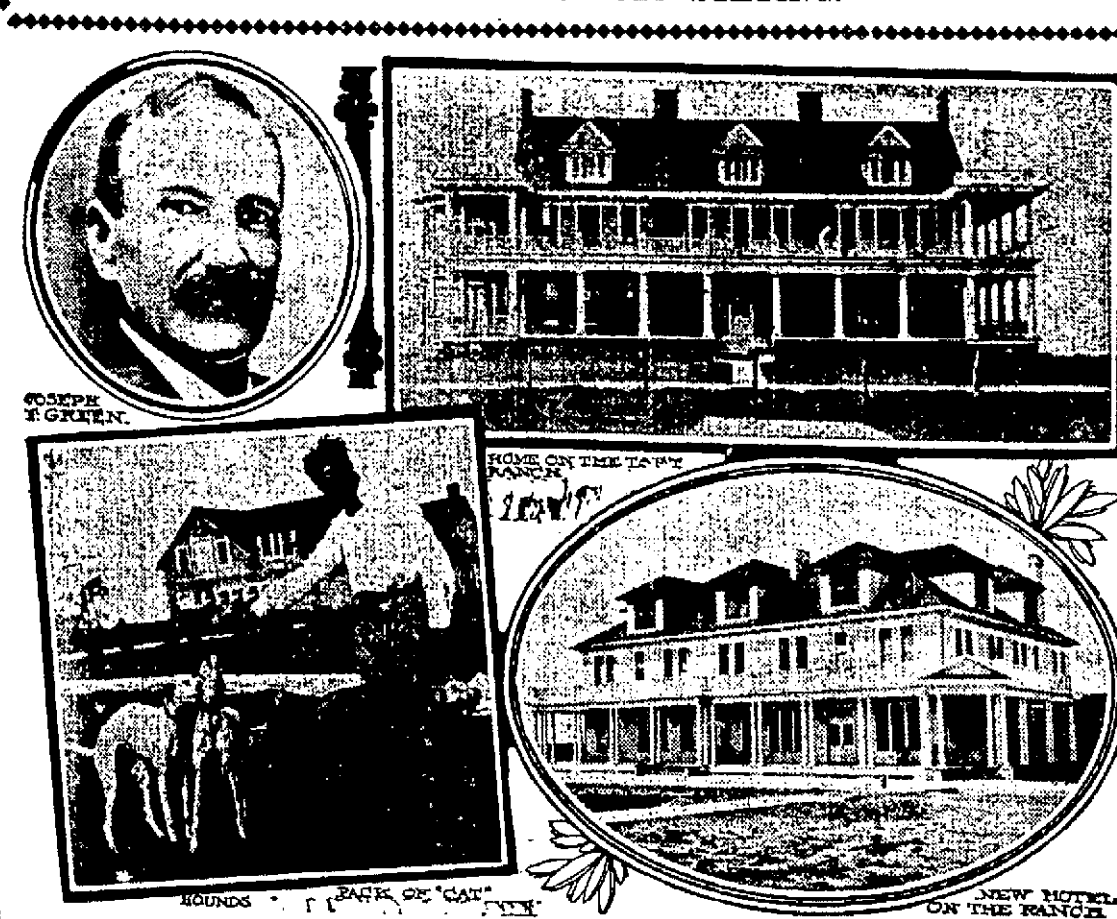

Corpus Christi, Texas, Oct. 22.—After three days of golf, rest and practical seclusion at his brother's ranch at Laguna, President Taft came here today and once more in the public eye, made an address to the convention of the interstate waterways league, which began its session here yesterday.

Governor Campbell and other state officers and a number of congressmen were among the delegates to welcome the president.

Mr. Taft made the trip from Laguna to Corpus Christi, a distance of ten miles, on the revenue cutter Windom.

Secretary of War Dickinson accompanied him. The president returns to Laguna this afternoon for a match game of golf and will leave Gregory at 8 p. m. for Houston. Saturday will be spent at Dallas, the president leaving there early Sunday morning for St. Louis to make a four days' trip down the Mississippi to New Orleans.

PEOPLE OF MESSINA TERRIFIED BY QUAKES

Eruption of Etna and Vesuvius Accompany Seismic Disturbances.

Messina, Oct. 22.—Yesterday's earth shocks felt in the vicinity of Mount Etna coincident with the renewed activity of Mount Vesuvius has caused much alarm here. The fact that such seismic disturbances had been predicted by Frank A. Perret, the American scientist, formerly assistant director of the Royal observatory on Mount Vesuvius does not lessen the uneasiness.

Mr. Perret was in this city during the last week of September and at that time pointed out that the 29th would be a date most favorable for earthquakes and volcanic eruptions for the reason that at that time the sun, earth and moon would be in line, thus constituting a combination tending to produce a gravitational distortion of the earth's form.

Mr. Perret added that if nothing out of the ordinary occurred as proved to be the case, it would mean that the earth had resisted the unusual pressure but that seismic convulsions would very likely be experienced in the latter half of October.

VESUVIUS IS SUBSIDING.

Naples, Oct. 22.—The eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, which became alarmingly active yesterday, appears to be decreasing today. The villages in the vicinity of the volcano are filled with strangers, mostly foreigners who had hastened there to witness the phenomena.

QUAKE KILLS TWENTY-FIVE.

Simla, British India, Oct. 22.—Twenty-five persons were killed and a score of others injured in a recent earthquake at Bellpur, a small town on the Quetta railroad in the central part of Beluchistan. The railway station and several residences adjoining were razed.

$4,000 AUTO A TOTAL WRECK SOUTH OF THE CITY

John Copper, Driving Edward White's Big Car, in Frightful Smash.

Edward White's big $4,000 Oldsmobile touring car is almost a total wreck as the result of a mishap on South Fairfield avenue, a short distance north of the Stillhorn bridge Thursday night. John Copper, chauffeur for Mr. White, was driving the car at the time, miraculously escaped injury, and he insisted early today that he was alone at the time of the accident.

Copper drove Mr. White and his family to the theater Thursday evening, and instead of returning the car to the garage for the night he started out for a spin on his own account. It is evident that the car must have been going at terrific speed and it skidded off the roadway, carrying with it a portion of the stone coping of a culvert at that point and leaping a ditch five or six feet wide. It came to a stop standing upon edge on the far side of the embankment, and was reduced almost to a mass of wreckage. Workmen were sent out today to bring the car to the city. Mr. White carried no insurance that covered this class of damage. Copper has the reputation of being a skilled and careful driver.

WORKHOUSE GUARD SLAIN.

Negro Prisoner in Delaware Prison Commits Murder.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 22.—John F. Campbell, a guard at the workhouse at Greenbank was shot today during a struggle with a negro prisoner. Campbell was killed and the prisoner was shot twice by a guard. James Butcher of Wilmington, a white prisoner, who also went to Campbell's assistance, was shot in the left leg. Butcher was only slightly hurt, but Graham's injuries are serious. Graham refused to do work assigned to him.

MANY TEACHERS HERE ON VISIT

Fully 150 Delaware County
Instructors See Fort Wayne Schools.

ADAMS COUNTY IS ALSO REPRESENTED

Northern Indiana Superintendents' Club Holding Meeting Here.

Headed by County Superintendent Charles A. VanMatre, of Muncie, and traveling by special train on the Lake Erie and Western railroad, fully one hundred and fifty Delaware county public school teachers came to Fort Wayne this morning to pay a visit to the city schools. About twenty Adams county teachers are also here on a similar mission, and the presence also of the Northern Indiana Superintendents' club makes Fort Wayne an unusual center of educational interest today.

The occasion is the annual "visiting day" of the Delaware county schools, the custom being to devote one day each year to a visit to other schools for the purpose of observing methods and picking up new ideas. The visitors arrived in the city shortly before 9 o'clock and marched in a body to the office of Superintendent Study in the old high school building.

Divided into Squads.

The party of visitors is so large that the only satisfactory way of affording them an opportunity to see the schools at work was to divide them into squads, and this was done. Eleven separate parties were arranged, and an itinerary was mapped out for visits to eleven of the ward buildings of the city. These were the Hoagland, Jefferson, Lakeside, Miner, Nebraska, Bloomingdale, Clay, Hamilton, Hanna and Harmer schools, and two boys from each of these schools acted as guides in aiding the visitors to reach the buildings.

At each school the parties were again sub-divided so that all the visitors might have the advantage of observation in the grades in which they were most interested, and practically the entire day was spent by the visitors in the schools. A year ago the Delaware county teachers went to Richmond on a similar mission. The special will leave for this afternoon on its return to Muncie.

Superintendents' Club Here.

The Northern Indiana Superintendents' club is also in the city for its regular meeting, the membership including twenty city superintendents in the northern part of the state. The club members also spent the day visiting the city schools, and in an executive session which convened in Superintendent Study's office at 4 o'clock this afternoon took up the business of the meeting. A banquet will be held this evening at the Anthony hotel, and business sessions will be continued tomorrow at the Anthony.

The membership of the Superintendents' club includes O. B. Baker, Winchester; G. E. Derbyshire, Portland; A. H. Douglas, Logansport; E. H. Drake, Elkhart; J. T. Giles, Marion; J. W. Hamilton, Monticello; R. F. Hight, Lafayette; L. N. Hines, Crawfordsville; C. N. Kendall, Indianapolis; C. M. McDaniel, Hammond; Calvin Moon, South Bend; R. B. Moore, Muncie; T. A. Motz, Richmond; J. E. Nuner, Mishawaka; E. A. Ogg, Kokomo; J. B. Pearce, Anderson; O. B. Pittenger, Alexandria; J. N. Study, Fort Wayne; W. A. Wirt, Gary; John A. Wood, South Bend.

The larger number of the Adams county teachers are from the Decatur schools, and are accompanied by Superintendent Ellis. State Superintendent Aleo is expected to arrive in the city to address the superintendents' club tomorrow.

OLD MURDER RISES TO BLOT OUT A NEW LIFE

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 22.—After twenty-two years of hiding, following a murder committed near Hendricks, Ky., in the fall of 1887, Alex McFarland was arrested yesterday close to the Raleigh-Kanawha border line by a posse of West Virginia and Kentucky officers. He was brought to this city last night on the way back to Kentucky.

Just twenty-two years ago this month Alex McFarland and Thomas H. Patton, of Hendricks, met on a country road. They quarreled over a woman and it is alleged McFarland shot and killed Patton. McFarland, with the aid of friends, got out of the state. When McFarland left Hendricks, he abandoned a wife and five little children.

After years of roaming about through almost every state in the union, he finally settled down in the coal and coke country of southern West Virginia and began anew, under the name of Fress Carter. He married and reared children who, until yesterday, never knew that a $500 reward was hanging over his head for the murder of Patton.

MACHINE MAN IN HANDS OF POLICE

A. O. Williams Held Under Bond in Slot Machine Hearing.

MAX BLITZ HELD WITHOUT A BOND

Affidavit is Filed Against Him and He is Ordered to Appear.

A. O. Williams, the man who is credited with the ownership of the nickel-in-the-slot machines that have made their appearance in the city in the last few weeks, was in the city court this morning on the charge of having a gaming device in his possession and when he was arraigned he entered a plea of not guilty, and this was granted and his bond of $100 given for his appearance when he was arrested last night was allowed to stand. He will retain counsel and make a fight.

M. J. Blitz Arraigned.

M. J. Blitz, in whose store one of the machines was found by Detective Harry Grimme last night, was also arraigned. He had not retained a lawyer but this was not necessary as the state asked a continuance in order to serve the ten-days' notice required by law before the machine can be destroyed.

Although the police were prodded into making the arrests it is by far the best piece of work the department has done in the slot machine matter, as they have the man who is charged with having brought them into the city and who is credited with having told the ugly stories about paying for the privilege of distributing them about. The matter can be thoroughly investigated, and the truth or falsity of the statements he is accused of having made can be proven.

Not at Store When Officer Came.

Mr. Blitz was at home last night when the machine was taken out of his place of business by the detective and he was notified to appear in the city court this morning and the affidavit was filed by the detective. Williams also made his appearance but no evidence of any kind was heard. After court he retained attorneys and prepared to take the case up when it is again called.

The better element among the saloon men is fighting the nickel-in-the-slot machine vigorously, as they recognize the device as out and out thievery because it is absolutely certain that the man who plays it can not win. There is not an even break for anybody and the police officers themselves are opposed to them but have had no orders from headquarters to arrest anybody and they were in operation some time before the department was advised of it.

AGREE ON NEED OF A LAKE-TO-LAKE WATERWAY

Congressmen Announce Intention of Coming to Fort Wayne.

Representative Cyrus Cline is in receipt of letters from a number of congressmen, agreeing upon the necessity of the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago deep waterway, and accepting invitations to be present at the Fort Wayne convention November 10 and 11.

Hon. James T. McDermott, of the 4th Illinois district, under date of October 20th, writes as follows:

"I will try to get down to Fort Wayne on the 10th of November, as I was an interested listener at all the meetings of the committee on this project, and fully agree with you of the necessity of a canal from Lake Michigan to Lake Erie."

Hon. Henry A. Barnhart, of the 12th Indiana district, under date of October 22nd, writes as follows:

"Replying to your very kind letter of September 22nd, I do not know of anything in the way of my being at Fort Wayne, unless it should occur that a coming wedding in my family, the date for which has not yet been definitely set, should occur at that time. I do not know what I shall talk about but not very much of anything, as I take it that the fellows who know all about this proposed enterprise will speak at length on its merits. If, however, you have any special subject on which you would like to have me talk, please advise me and oblige."

The larger portion of the Ohio delegation will be present on the first day of the convention, leaving in time to attend a banquet of the Ohio waterways movement at Columbus on the evening of November 11.

BAR NEAR-BEER DEALERS.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—The Tennessee grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows today adopted a resolution denying membership to dealers in near-beer and also to men who conduct so-called soft drink stands. Since the exclusion of the liquor traffic from the state last July the sale of near-beer in soft drink stands has become widespread. The Odd Fellows had previously barred moonshiners from membership.

EBERT ASKS $5,000 FOR INJURY TO HIS LEG

Suit is Filed Against William Yergens—The Court News.

Adam Ebert has filed a suit in the superior court in which he makes a demand of William Yergens for $5,000 for injuries to his left leg, alleged to have been sustained through carelessness of piling barrel headings in the latter's mill.

He alleges that on March 6, of this year, he was employed by Yergens and was working between two piles of headings, which had not been properly put up, and that both of them fell, breaking his leg in two places and inflicting a permanent injury to his ankle. Judge R. B. Dreibeiss is his attorney.

Court Notes.

The will of Joseph Lothamer was filed for probate in the circuit court today. Under its conditions his property is devised to his widow, Eliza Lothamer during her life and to their children at their death. The estate consists of 120 acres of land and personal property.

Articles of Incorporation of the Clemens Hotel company have been filed with the county recorder. The incorporators are Daniel and Henry Clemens and Adolph Roggen and the capital stock is $50,000.

The will of the late Susan Kelly has been filed for probate. She left $100 to each of four grandchildren and a judgment of $600 due her estate to be divided among them. The rest of the estate, including some city property, is left to a daughter, Catherine Kelly. W. P. Breen is named as executor.

The will of Barney Prepsing has also been filed for probate. He divides an eighty-acre farm in Adams township among his children—Anna, William and John Prepsing, and Dennis Hosmer—giving each twenty acres. The personal property is divided between William and Anna Prepsing. John H. Hartman is named as executor.

ACTOR GOES BLIND ON STAGE.

Jules Kusell in Toronto Hall Continues Act.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Jules Kusell, an actor, was suddenly stricken with blindness last night in the middle of his sketch at the Majestic Music hall. He finished the act without permitting the audience or those on the stage to become aware of his condition. Kusell, who with his wife, known as Estelle Wordette, was giving a comedy sketch in which he sings several songs, was seen to reel slightly and pass his hand across his eyes just before the climax of the skit. No one attached any significance to this, and he alone knew that in that instant a sharp pain made his head whirl and suddenly all was darkness.

The song he was singing at that moment broke, but his presence of mind quickly returned and he smiled on the house and resumed the melody. Responding to the burst of applause, he turned his sightless eyes toward his wife and bowed through several curtain calls, laughingly thanking the audience.

The instant the curtain fell for the last time Kusell staggered toward the wings and was half carried to his dressing room by friends. Three doctors spent all of last night ministering to Kusell in the hope of saving his sight. This morning they said there was little hope that he would ever see again.

The fire department was called to the residence of Mary E. Veith, 710 Barr street, by a blaze caused by a gasoline stove. It was quickly extinguished. No loss reported.

TAFI AS ABSTAINER PRAISED BY MRS. STEVENS

Head of W. C. T. U. Features Annual Address by Approval of Him.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Lillian M. Stevens, president of the national W. C. T. U. delivered her annual address today.

Mrs. Stevens featured her report with a note of congratulation to President Taft for his stand on the temperance question. In reviewing the action of corporations and organizations in different parts of the country which have placed a ban on the employment of persons addicted to the liquor habit, Mrs. Stevens says:

"There have been many similar determinations during the year by organizations and prominent individuals, the latest and most notable being that of Mr. Taft, who, soon after his election as president of the United States, at a banquet turned his wine glass down and said it would ever remain so, and in harmony with this action and through his request, no liquors were served at the inaugural ball at Washington."

"For Mr. Taft to set the example of total abstinence is cause for great rejoicing by those who care for humanity's weal. It is an example safe and beneficial for all to follow. Mr. Taft is entitled to grateful thanks and appreciation of a thrice grateful nation."

The report opens with a compliment to Nebraska, saying that the state is to be congratulated on the action of the last legislature which passed a day-long saloon bill, but adds that it was in Nebraska that the high license idea was born and that it was in this state that the fallacy of the idea was demonstrated.

Review of Victories. A review of victories is then given by Mrs. Stevens, the work in Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, South Carolina, Indiana, Ohio, Nebraska and other states being particularly mentioned. Particular attention is given also to the death of Senator E. W. Carmack, of Tennessee, the report in this respect saying:

"To the old volunteer state of Tennessee have come the saddest and gladdest days. The saddest day was when a murderous bullet pierced the heart of Edward Ward Carmack, Tennessee's most gifted and gallant son—a man who stood fearlessly for civic righteousness and who nobly challenged the right of the liquor traffic to live."

Considerable stress is laid on the work in Alabama, where, the report states, was furnished a wonderful chapter in prohibition agitation and conquest. Governor Comer, of that state, is congratulated on his action in calling an extra session of the legislature to adopt more stringent laws against the liquor traffic.

A general review on total abstinence says: "There is in the public mind a clearer understanding than ever before concerning the relation of total abstinence to prohibition. All well-meaning, intelligent people know that liquor drinking is demoralizing; that it is destructive to health and happiness, to commercial and industrial efficiency."

In proof of this statement Mrs. Stevens quotes from numerous authorities and especially refers to statements made by heads of thirty-nine of the leading railroad systems of the country in response to letters sent them by the National W. C. T. U., asking for their policy with regard to drinking men. All replies received stated that there was an absolutely prohibitive rule against liquor.

"It is conservatively estimated, therefore," the report states, "that 90 per cent of the railways, 79 per cent of the manufacturers, 80 per cent of the trades and 79 per cent of agriculturists discriminate against workmen who drink."

Mrs. Stevens deprecates the fact that many daily papers accept extensive advertising contracts from liquor dealers and in her report gives a list of forty-two periodicals which decline to accept this class of advertisements. She says that one periodical refused $200,000 of liquor advertising in one year.

An appeal is also made to the various church denominations to increase their zeal for the cause of prohibition and those which have taken decided stands against encouragement in any manner of the liquor traffic by their members are commended.

The work of securing a federal law which will prevent interstate shipments of liquor into "dry" territory is commended and action along that line already taken is reviewed at length. Speaker Cannon is charged with having prevented the passage of a bill designed for that purpose through the last congress, the report stating that "the feeling prevailed that the Littlefield bill would have passed had it been given a fair chance by Speaker Cannon."

The report strongly favors a federal commission of inquiry on the alcoholic liquor traffic, but admits that it is not so greatly needed now as it was twenty years ago.

The report closes with an urgent appeal for renewed zeal in the temperance work.

The concert to have been given tonight by the Juniors of Emanuel Lutheran church has been postponed until further notice.

ONLY TWO CASES OF SMALLPOX ARE REPORTED

Dr. Ormsby Pronounces the Disease Smallpox After Examinations.

Only two new cases of smallpox were reported to the city health department today and as this is a little below the average of the last few days the officials believe that the efforts to suppress the infection are meeting with success. The new patients are Alma Starke, of 1314 Rockhill street, and a patient on East Washington street, of whom the name had not been reported.

Dr. Oliver Ormsby, of Rush Medical college pronounced the disease here smallpox and while he admitted some of it exists in a mild form he says that the worst cases are some times communicated by just this sort. In an interview he said:

"The epidemic now raging in Fort Wayne is smallpox. The cases are the same as those which I have seen all over the middle west during the past ten years. A few of the cases over which there seemed to be some dispute, while irregular in some of the symptoms, are undoubtedly smallpox."

"I saw today in one family a child which had but a few of the pimples while the father, who caught the disease from the child, was suffering the most intense agony and was broken out all over his body from head to foot. I saw one other case in which the kidneys had been undoubtedly affected, and I have been informed of the presence of several eye symptoms arising from the disease."

"I mention this in order to show that even the milder cases of smallpox may result in serious complications. There is no telling when this epidemic may turn into a severe form, and the public should certainly assist the board of health in every way in stamping it out as quickly as possible. There is but one way of checking the disease, and that is by vaccination. I consider it a shame that the state of Indiana permits children to attend its schools that have not been vaccinated. "Vaccination absolutely prevents smallpox. There is no doubt that at this point there will continue to be a number of mild, unrecognized cases walking the streets. You can understand, therefore, that the only way in which the board of health can hope for a cessation of the epidemic is by obtaining the consent of the people to a general vaccination."

"These cases I have spoken of are those in the west portion of the city. I also saw several cases in other parts of the city over which no dispute could possibly be raised. If it is possible for the board of health to issue an order requiring the vaccination of all school children I hope they will take this precaution. It is the duty of every public spirited citizen to at once report any suspicious cases of skin eruptions to the proper authorities."

PROVES LONG-LOST FATHER.

Terre Haute Man Goes to View Body and Finds Live Parent Instead.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22.—Henry J. Klein, of Terre Haute, Ind., went to Edwardsville, Ill., after receiving information that his father, Jacob Klein, had been killed, but found the elder man alive and well and employed at the Madison county poor farm.

Klein is a conductor on the Vandavia line, whose run is from Terre Haute to St. Louis. Several years ago Klein's father, who was aged and not over strong, disappeared under mysterious circumstances and no trace of him was ever found.

A Clover Leaf train Monday killed a man near Edwardsville. A description of the unidentified man came under Conductor Klein's observation. The description fitted that of his father. Klein went to Edwardsville yesterday and viewed the body. While the likeness was startling, he was convinced it was not the body of his father.

Deputy Coroner Love then spoke of the striking likeness between the dead man and "Old Jake," a nurse at the Madison county hospital at Edwardsville, who had aided him in preparing bodies for burial.

Klein and the deputy coroner visited the hospital. "Old Jake" was sent for and there was a reunion of father and son.

POSSUM FOR TAFI EATS MAIL.

Leesville, La., Young People Tag Animal and Put It in Postoffice.

Leesville, La., Oct. 22.—A short time ago a party of young people of this city went on an old-fashioned possum hunt, capturing several of the animals. Some time during the same night some one placed a possum in the package department of the postoffice and addressed it to President Taft. It was found next morning by the postmaster, after the animal had chewed up and destroyed all the mail in the box. The matter has been reported to the postal authorities and what was started as a practical joke may result in serious trouble to the perpetrators. The inspector's department is at work on the case.

Constipation And Appendicitis

The Latter Usually Caused by the Former, Which, in Turn, Has Its Origin in Intestinal Indigestion.

Chronic constipation is a disease which is about as prevalent as dyspepsia and indigestion. Nearly every one suffers from it occasionally, but there are millions of people who endure it habitually, and who are accustomed to resort to the use of laxatives and cathartics daily.

Many people seemed to have developed a perfect mania for taking pills, and instead of trying to ascertain the latent cause of the disease, and removing it by appropriate treatment, they are content to continue the reckless use of laxatives, aperients, drastic cathartics and violent purgatives, until finally inflammation of the bowels occurs, which reaches the appendix, and the result is appendicitis.

In investigating and tracing the causative factors of constipation and its frequent sequel, appendicitis, it has been noted by physicians that the majority of cases were preceded and accompanied by a long-standing gastro-intestinal indigestion.

The idea that appendicitis is brought on by foreign bodies, such as seeds, etc., becoming lodged in the appendix, is an exploded theory. It is now definitely known that constipation is the most prolific cause of this dread disease, while the constipation itself is previously induced by intestinal indigestion, or amylaceous dyspepsia—the inability to digest starches—so the relation between cause and effect is readily seen and appreciated.

The absurdity of attempting to cure constipation by the use of physic should be apparent to every one. Laxative drugs and powerful purgatives will never cure a disease of this sort, and those who make frequent or regular use of them will, sooner or later, set up an inflammatory condition of the intestinal system.

A person with first-class digestion will never be annoyed with chronic constipation, and when this trouble does exist, instead of slugging the system with pills, liquid laxatives, candy cathartics, etc., use a remedy which will cure the gastro-intestinal indigestion, and you will find that the constipation no longer bothers you, and with its removal, the risk of developing appendicitis will be reduced to the minimum.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS have been the means of curing numerous cases of constipation, by first curing the intestinal indigestion. They digest every kind of food, a single grain being capable of digesting 3,000 grains of albumen, and in addition to pepsin and other powerful digestives, they also contain diastase, which converts starch into sugar, and readily cures amylaceous dyspepsia and intestinal indigestion.

If you are suffering from dyspepsia, constipation, and, in fact, indigestion of any kind, don't run the risk of getting appendicitis, but strike at the root of the trouble—the original cause—by using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which will quickly rid you of all functional disorders of the alimentary tract.

Secure a box of this digestive remedy from your druggist for 50c and send your name and address to the F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich., for a free sample package.

ROOSEVELT'S STORY OF SLAYING OF BIG LION

Kills Furious Monarch of the Forest as It is About to Charge.

New York, Oct. 22.—Theodore Roosevelt, writing in the November number of Scribner's Magazine, gives his impressions and experiences of an East African lion hunt, which in many ways reminds him of early days on the plains of the great west, and then plunges into an account of his first encounter with big African game.

"The dangerous game of Africa," he says, "are the lion, buffalo, elephant, rhinoceros and leopard. The hunter who follows any of these animals always does so at a certain risk of life or limb—a risk which it is his business to minimize by coolness, caution, good judgment and straight shooting. The leopard is, in point of pluck and ferocity, more than the equal of the other four, but his small size always renders it likely that he will merely maul and not kill a man.

Chicagoan Kills Leopard Barehanded. "My friend, Carl Akely, of Chicago, actually killed barehanded a leopard which sprang on him. He already had wounded the beast twice, crippling it in one front and one hind paw, whereupon it charged, followed him as he tried to dodge the charge, and struck him full just as he turned. It bit him in one arm, biting again and again as it worked up the arm from the wrist to the elbow, but Akely threw it, holding its throat with the other hand and flinging its body to one side.

"It luckily fell on its side with its two wounded legs uppermost, so that it could not tear him. He fell forward with it and crushed in its chest with his knees until he distinctly felt one of its ribs crack; this, said Akely, was the first moment when he felt he might conquer. Redoubling his efforts, with knees and hands, he actually choked and crushed the life out of it, although his arm was badly bitten."

Tells How He Slew a Lion.

Mr. Roosevelt devotes considerable space to telling how he brought to bay and finally killed a lion. The description begins at a point where the hunter is standing beside his mount considering what he shall do if the lion charges and cannot be stopped by a well directed shot. The writer continues:

"Now, an elderly man with a varied past, which includes rheumatism, does not vault lightly into the saddle, as his sons, for instance, can; and I already had made up my mind that in the event of the lion's charging it would be wise for me to trust to powder rather than to try to scramble into the saddle and get under way in time.

Growing, Rolled Over Plain. "The lion was now standing up looking first at one group of horses and then at the other, his tail lashing to and fro, his head held low and his lips dropped over his mouth in peculiar fashion, while his harsh and savage growling rolled thunderously over the plain. Seeing Simba and me on foot he turned toward us, his tail lashing quicker and quicker.

"Resting my elbow on Simba's bent shoulder, I took steady aim and pressed the trigger; the bullet went in between the neck and shoulder, and the lion fell over on his side, one foreleg in the air. He recovered in a moment and stood up, evidently sick, and once more faced me, growling hoarsely. I think he was on the eve of charging. I fired again at once and this bullet broke his back just behind the shoulders, and with the next I killed him outright, after we had gathered round him."

More Than Enough Is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by all druggists.

GROWTH

The growth of a financial institution is a measure of the public confidence which it enjoys. Our Savings Department has grown steadily in popular favor since the first day the bank was opened.

The explanation of this is found in the fact that a Savings Department in a National Bank appeals to a depositor, because around his savings are thrown all the safeguards of the National Banking system.

The frequent examinations by the bank examiners and the liberal reserves required by law to be carried for the security of the depositor, these make people feel absolutely secure regarding the safety of their money.

The rate of interest allowed in our Savings Department is 4 per cent. If money is left four full calendar months. On the 1st of January and the first of July you may draw the interest. If you don't draw it the interest is added to the principal and itself begins to draw interest. Small depositors are especially welcome.

How Time Changes Things

A few years ago Steel Ranges were the only thing to buy. So short-lived have these stoves been that the Cast Iron Range now holds full sway.

Well, is it any wonder? As in the latter case with no flues or walls to burn out, set up on feet so it is easy to clean under; or, is it necessary, to open over door to heat the kitchen.

Really there are so many arguments in favor of this new style range that we look forward to the largest sale we have ever had on stoves.

THE SLOT MACHINES AGAIN.

After taking abundant time for deliberation, no doubt to the end that nothing rash be done, the police department has moved against the recent invasion of the slot machines.

If the invasion has been completely resisted, there is no complaint to make. Rather it is occasion for expressing the hope that the capable and vigilant police department will see to it that the invasion is not soon repeated.

Just why it was that the interests behind the slot machines believed they could safely invade Fort Wayne again with their nefarious devices cannot be definitely ascertained. Some ugly guesses have been made and gossip on the street has sought to account for the sudden reappearance of slot machines here so soon after they have been banished and the chief of police had vociferated that not again would they be tolerated during his administration. But neither guesses nor gossip account for anything of this sort or other. The police department can prove its good faith by making sure that every machine here is out of commission and seizing all those upon which the hands of authority can be laid. Following that there should be rigorous prosecution of all who have given place to the machines.

Some time ago Chief of Police Ankenbruck described slot machines as the worst form of gambling he knew of. He was right; there is no worse method of gambling. We trust his plans are fully laid to see that its stronghold here be of brief tenure. If there is one species of gambling that more than any other should be made the subject of special police vigilance and the limit of the law's rigors, it is the slot gambling machine.

August M. Schmidt has never made a formal public declaration committing himself to the platform the democratic platform committee framed for him. Verbal acquiescence in his statements is hardly according to the rules of the game and the precedents of democracy. There would be added confidence in Mr. Schmidt were he to formally accept that platform and take occasion to amplify its painfully brief and suspiciously indefinite plank on law enforcement.

And now that we are under that order of business let it not be overlooked that a few miles of brick pavement in this city are sadly in need of overhauling. This especially is true on streets that were paved a good while ago in rather a primitive fashion. Yet, not all the brick streets that need repairs are the older ones. Next year's repair program will have to be an extensive one and the city statesmen may very well begin to take note of it.

A lovely three-cornered municipal fight in New York with a brace of reform tickets striving to undo Tammany gives rattling fine promise that the great political organization is going to keep right on sitting in the seats of the mighty. It is a sorry waste of reform energy. Put together the do-better parties could win doubtless quite handsly.

Governor Marshall denies that he is greasing the skids for the going out of a shrouded form that bears a striking resemblance to the outlines of one T. Taggart. Thereat much regret is likely to be expressed. The democracy of Indiana needs much, among it less of some things.

It is common gossip in Eskimo land that Cook reached the pole, says Rasmussen. Peary seems to have got just the kind of information that Cook had carefully prepared the Eskimos to give him.

Now, why did the slot machine agent get it into his poor head he could open the nefarious game here in public places? Likewise, how?

AT THE TEMPLE.

Special School Children's Matinee Saturday.

The Temple will have a special matinee for women and children Saturday afternoon, and the remarkable bill of vaudeville which is offered there this week will prove a very attractive one, especially for the little folks, who will want to see Arnoldo and his leopards and panthers and their great performance. It is an act that is at once interesting and instructive and one which is conceded to be the greatest animal act in the world. Leopards are hard to train—some claim they are impossible—but Arnoldo shows in his act that at least he has succeeded in training these great jungle cats to do some wonderful stunts and this by kindness and patience alone. This act should be seen by every boy and girl and, in fact, every one, owing not only to its entertaining qualities, but also on account of its instructiveness. These animals are beautiful specimens and Tom is said to be the largest, handsomest and most powerful leopard in the world in captivity. The other acts on the bill are entertaining and altogether interesting. The bill is of happy variety and must be seen to be appreciated.

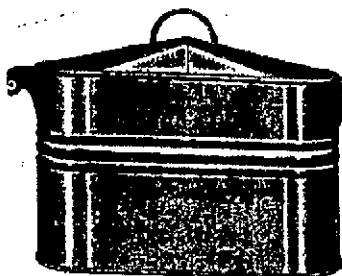

DEPENDABLE PROPRIETARY MEDICINES.

It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for thirty years, and today hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

Teach your boy and girl the art of saving by starting them with a lot in EAST-WOOD addition. Terms 50 cents a week without interest.

SUFFRAGE FOR

Methods of the Women of England.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 22.—Commander Eva Booth, head of the Salvation army in America, in an interview here declared in favor of woman suffrage. "I am interested," she said, "in woman's advancement." "Do you think women should vote?" she was asked.

"I certainly do think they should," she replied.

"Now please do not misunderstand me," she continued. "I stand for woman keeping her own place. I would be grieved to see anything done that would make woman unwomanly. You know politics is different in every country. Since the Salvation army works the world over it is wisest to keep entirely out of politics. Nevertheless, the army gives women equal opportunities with men. It has women officers and they have the right of the public platform."

Thinks Men Should Bear Brunt.

"I think men were intended to bear the brunt of life—that is, go out and breast the heaviest waves. Woman should do nothing that would mar her graces. Still, she holds property and pays taxes, and she should have a say in the government."

"Women have been doing outlandish things about suffrage in England. Such radical measures gain for them the reputation of being hysterical and silly. When men find a woman acting like Mrs. Pankhurst, for example, they say: 'You see what the government would come to if they voted.' There is a better way to get what we want."

"How about the woman's club movement? Has it seemed to you to be a good thing?"

"Christian clubs for young women are all right."

"But when women have families of children don't you think they ought to be at home raising the future men and women of the nation?"

"Well, I do, and I am not in favor of doing things that break up the home."

Manager Rice, of the Majestic, today signed contracts for the appearance in Fort Wayne of another of the very biggest and latest productions—"Via Wireless." The piece will be seen here November 5, 6 and 7, after an extended run in Chicago. Its equipment includes a big company and several carloads of scenery.

ACCIDENTS TO PASSENGERS.

How to alight from a street car safely has been told, bulletined and pictured so often that there should be no need to repeat the simple rule to be followed; but so many accidents continue to happen because passengers, especially women, insist upon alighting in the wrong way, that it seems necessary to publish this reminder.

In getting on or off a car Always take hold of the Front Handle and Face toward the Front of the car, letting the Right foot reach the ground first.

Our rules and bulletins to our men are all aimed to make street car travel absolutely safe, but the best rules will not always prevent accidents if the passenger does not use ordinary care.

ACCIDENTS TO VEHICLES

It has often been remarked that if the drivers of vehicles took the same precautions as required of street railway employees, or could the car at times be deviated slightly from the path laid down for it and which it necessarily has to travel, over seventy-five per cent of vehicle accidents could be avoided.

ACCIDENT SETTLEMENTS

Accident claims and their adjustment are expensive to those who are injured and to the company.

Every dollar taken to pay a damage claim, whether it results from the company's negligence or not, reduces the amount that the company can expend for improvements which would result in better as well as safer operation.

It is to your advantage as well as ours to keep down accident expense.

IN THE CHURCHES
ORDER OF PROVIDENCE
WAS FOUNDED 97
YEARS AGO

St. Augustine's and St. Catherine's Academies to Keep Day.

Today, October 22, is observed by the Order of the Sisters of Providence as "Foundation Day." It marks the foundation or establishment of the order in the United States, the first members thereof coming from France and locating at St. Mary's-of-the-Woods, Vigo county, Ind., sixty-seven years ago. In all of the schools conducted by the Sisters of Providence the day is generally observed with a special program of entertainment. This evening at St. Augustine's academy a fine program will be given by boarding students for the sisters. It will consist of short talks, vocal and instrumental selections and recitations.

On account of the devotion of the forty hours in progress at St. Patrick's church, the program to have been given this afternoon by the young ladies of St. Catherine's academy has been postponed until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. It will then be held in the assembly hall and will be attended by the sisters and the students of the grammar grades of St. Patrick's school. Topics of the papers to be presented are as follows:

"Foundation of the Community in France."
First Academic.
"Foundation of the Community in America."
Second Academic.
Brief sketch of the life of Mother Theodore.
Third and Fourth Academic.
Vocal and instrumental selections by advanced students will supplement the papers to be presented.
Thursday, November 25, "Feast of St. Catherine," patronal feast for graduates will be auspiciously observed at St. Augustine's academy; the Alumnae association also participating. Tuesday, November 30, the tenth anniversary of the consecration of Rt. Rev. Herman Joseph Alerding, D. D., bishop of Fort Wayne, will be observed with a program of unusual interest and attractiveness. Students from all departments of the academy will participate in this celebration.

ORPHANS' HOME DEDICATION.
Local Lutherans to Attend Ceremonies at Richmond Next Month.

The Wernle Orphans' home of the Northern district Evangelical Lutheran joint synod of Ohio and other states, which is being erected at Richmond, Ind., is nearing completion and will be dedicated in November. The date for the important event has not as yet been determined. Members of the two Fort Wayne Lutheran churches of the Ohio synod, St. John's and Grace, are deeply interested in the coming event and a special effort will be made to have an excursion run to Richmond, in order to accommodate the large number of people who are desirous of attending the dedication. The Orphans' home is being erected at a cost of about $35,000 and an important matter in connection with this announcement is that with the dedication of the building it will be free from indebtedness. Indicative of the interest on the part of the members of St. John's church is the fact that it has donated the generous amount of $2,450 to assist in defraying the expenses attached to the erection of the home.

ENTERTAIN. THANKSGIVING.

Luther Society to Present "The Last Leaf," Drama in Two Acts.

The Luther society of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church will give its annual Thanksgiving entertainment next month and active preparations are being made for the affair. The members have selected from a number of productions "The Last Leaf," a drama in two acts, written by George M. Baker, author of a number of popular sketches. The characters are eight in number, five male and three female. Sunday afternoon a meeting of the Thanksgiving entertainment committee will be held in the school hall and the various roles will be assigned. The next regular meeting of the Luther society will be held Tuesday evening, November 2.

SERVICES WERE IMPRESSIVE.

Large Congregation Attends Opening of Forty Hours Devotion.

A large congregation attended St. Patrick's church this morning for the opening of the forty hours devotion. The services were very impressive and the eloquent sermon delivered by Rev. This evening the missionary will preach a sermon on the topic, "Christ in the Blessed Sacrament a Most Loyal Friend in Life and Death."

The thirty-second annual convention of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal churches of the Fort Wayne district, closed with this afternoon's session. The convention opened Thursday afternoon, the sessions being presided over by the first vice president, Mrs. Gilbert Fox, of Fort Wayne.

This afternoon's meeting consisted of an assembly of the district officers. Mrs. J. P. Lemon, of Pennville, led the devotions. Miss Wohlfort discussed "Children's Hour" and Mrs. I. W. Langford, of Fort Wayne, gave an address on "The Gospel in Latin Lands." Mrs. Blanche Reichelderfer, of Harlan, had charge of "The Mystery Box." Reports of the various officers were received in the afternoon. Mrs. Wm. P. Herron, of Fort Wayne, gave an address and the election of officers was followed by a consecration service.

At the home of Mrs. W. F. Kruse, her niece, Miss Iva Parrant, who is to become a bride on next Tuesday, was given a shower of china and a number of her friends were entertained yesterday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated. In the living room the colors of green and pink were seen with vases filled with roses. The dining room was done in green and red. A wedding bell was suspended from the ceiling over the chair occupied by Miss Parrant and her chair was trimmed with a wreath of roses, carnations and smilax. A luncheon was served at 4 o'clock and Miss Parrant cut and served the cake in which was hidden a gold thimble, which Mrs. Millhouse found. Mrs. W. F. Kruse furnished music during the time. Mrs. L. F. Kruse and Mrs. C. Millhouse assisted the hostess during the afternoon. The guests were Mrs. Mary Mether, Mrs. Mary Neman, Mrs. H. Hoffman, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. M. Angers, Mrs. Guy Williams, Mrs. William Killen, Mrs. McNulty, Mrs. Tierman, Mrs. Julius Parrant and daughter, Anna, Mrs. W. H. Noll and daughter, Esther, and Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. P. J. H. Myers, of South Harrison street, has issued cards for an at home which she will hold on Tuesday, Oct. 26, in honor of her mother, Mrs. E. H. Myers, of Boston, Mass., who has come to spend the winter here. The hours will be from 3 to 6 o'clock and the reception will be informal.

Mrs. Frank Callahan, of Madison street, entertained for Miss Frances Veith last evening. Other guests were classmates of Miss Veith at St. Augustine's academy. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and the decorations were appropriate for a prenuptial affair. Over the center of the table hung a red wedding bell and red ribbons extended from it to the corners of the table. Ferns formed the rest of the decoration with the exception of Miss Veith's chair, which was trimmed with white. The guests were Mrs. August Langhorst, Miss Alice Dittoe, Miss Helen Franke and Miss Alice Dooley.

Simple and Attractive Model.

By Mrs. Jane Ford

6 SIZES 22 TO 32 WAIST

Among the lovely new skirts that are shown for autumn wear are a marked number of circular models. The one pictured is particularly suitable for stout figures. The pattern may be obtained in six sizes, that run from twenty-two to thirty-two inches waist measure. To copy it in the medium sizes of material thirty-six inches wide, four yards will be needed. Of goods forty-four inches wide three and one-half yards will be sufficient.

Developed in any of the soft new weaves of broadcloth, this skirt would be suitable to combine with a waist to form a costume or for wear with a coat and separate waist of silk or tub goods. A marvel feature of the design is the yoke portion, that is so arranged that it has somewhat the effect of an overskirt.

In this garment the objectionable feature of the old fashioned circular out skirt—that of sagging—is effectively overcome by placing a seam at the sides that extends from the waist to the hem at the bottom.

After the material is cut out according to the directions on the pattern label, the yoke is basted, fitted, stitched and the seams pressed open before the lower edge is faced. The latter is finished by facing it on the wrong side with a silk or satin band of the proper width and cut to fit the yoke. The lower part of the skirt is then made and pressed, after which it is basted to the yoke and stitched as shown by the illustration.

At the back the closing is effected under an inverted box plait. The lower edge can be finished either with a hem or a facing, that may be stitched or held in place invisibly by blind stitching.

This skirt will be found a particularly easy model to copy.

PERFECTION BISCUIT COMPANY

Again the Piano Purchase Check

Credit Coupon and Certificate

THEIR VALUE

As to the value of the Piano Purchase Checks and Coupons, little remains to be said. If you have reasoned the matter out for yourself and applied the tests given in our advertisements appearing in the Morning Journal-Gazette of Tuesday and the Evening Sentinel and News of the same day you can readily see that it is not possible for you to get $100 in actual piano value for a piece of paper called Purchase Check, Credit Coupon, etc., etc. We have only one object in stating our position in regard to these Purchase Checks and Credit Coupons, and as already stated, it has not been with malice on our part or any desire to hurt the business of anyone, our sole purpose being to get piano buyers to insist upon pianos being sold to them at prices commensurate with their value in actual Dollars and Cents.

ANOTHER TEST FOR YOU, MR. AND MRS. COUPON-HOLDER.

At our store $225 gives you the choice of six new pianos of various designs in mahogany or oak cases. Also gives you the choice of a number of slightly used pianos of good grade, that were originally sold as high as $350. We ask you to test their value as compared with those offered by the houses accepting Purchase Checks, Coupons and Certificates. If you can purchase of them a piano equal in tone, finish, design, size and reputation for $125 and your Purchase Check of $100, your Check has an actual value. If you cannot purchase an instrument such as we offer at $225 without paying $225 or more in addition to your Certificate, we are sure you will be convinced that your Purchase Check, Coupon or Certificate is of no benefit to you. We do not ask you to take our judgment in this matter, and if you have not confidence in your own, bring someone whose opinion you value. Anyone holding a Purchase Check, Coupon or Certificate will do well to call on us.

WE WISH OUR COMPETITORS SUCCESS

It would be expecting too much on our part to be able to sell all the pianos consumed in this vicinity. We welcome legitimate competition; we wish our competitors success. What we object to is the idea of trying to make people believe they can get $100 in actual piano value for a piece of paper calling for that sum, called Purchase Check, Credit Coupon or Certificate. We believe we are in a position to give those who patronize us all any house can give its customers. If these Purchase Checks, Credit Coupons or Certificates had any cash value we would be only too glad to accept them in part payment on pianos. We cannot figure that they have.

First, because we know of a number who have received them and have consigned them to the waste basket.

Second, because a number of our customers who have purchased pianos of us, realizing that the Purchase Checks, Credit Coupons or Certificates that have been sent to them were of no value, have left them at our store, where they can be seen by anyone.

Third, because we cannot get anything for them—not even a bag of peanuts.

Fourth, because our pianos are priced to all our customers at one price, and that price their actual value, and we do not know of anyone who will give us cash, or in fact, anything, for these Purchase Checks and Credit Coupons.

Threatens Bachelor Maids' Society When Charter Member Gets Married.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Oct. 22.—The chain which bound together the Bachelor Maids of Charlestown, an organization of society young women, was broken yesterday for the first time by the wedding at the Presbyterian church there of Miss Henriette Spriesterbach, one of the charter members, and Dr. A. Woodford Yager, a dentist. The ceremony, which was one of the most brilliant social affairs in the history of Charlestown, and which was attended by many from a distance, was solemnized by Rev. Leon Young of Lincoln, Neb., a brother-in-law of the bride.

AMATEUR HYPNOTIST UNABLE TO ROUSE HIS SUBJECT

Eastern College Youth is Under the Spell for Fourteen Hours.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 22.—For fourteen hours Burton White, a freshman at the Connecticut State college, lay hypnotized, devoid of will power, absolutely under the control of John Bergensen, his classmate.

For almost fourteen hours Bergen-sen, an amateur in hypnotism, tried to bring White out of the hypnotic state and failed because he had not the power or did not know how. Then a physician was called and with much difficulty restored White to his senses.
He is 19 years old, a bright student, but for a while after he came to his mental powers were as feeble as those of a child of 4.

Following an old custom, the students at the Connecticut State college, which is at Storrs, held the autumnal
"hazing bee" Saturday night. After the rushing and the mauling, the cane fight, and such "rah rah" diversions had ended, White, Bergensen and half a dozen other freshmen went to White's room.

Thinks He Is a Hypnotist.
White, the son of Rev. Herbert J.
White, pastor of a Baptist church here, has been interested in hypnotism, but his father and mother had warned him never to subject himself to a test of its power. Bergensen had the idea that he has hypnotic power.

After the hazing in White's room the talk turned to hypnotism, and Bergen-sen tried to put to sleep three or four of his classmates. He succeeded partially with two, but they recovered quickly, even before the hypnotizer bade them "awake."

Not so White, who is of a nervous temperament. He fixed his eyes on Bergensen's, who kept passing his hands before White's face. In a few moments White fell back on his bed, unconscious, to all appearances rigid,
his eyes closed.

"Fine," exclaimed the others. "Ber-gensen, you're a dandy."
Enjoy His Triumph Briefly.
White remained in this condition until Sunday. One of the scared freshmen got panic-stricken and told President Beach, of the college, of White's condition. Bergensen enjoyed his triumph briefly, then attempted to awaken White. Try as he might until the sweat poured down his face and he was trembling with apprehension, Ber-gensen could not arouse him. After about an hour White began to laugh in a silly, childish fashion, and he kept it up.

The president called Dr. William L.
Higgins.

"Look me in the eye," he said gently, coaxingly, to White, and repeated it over and over again. "Look me in the eye; wake up. You are all right; you will be all right. Wake up, my boy."

Now and again the doctor blew in White's eyes. Soon they regained their normal position. Then they fixed themselves on the doctor's. After fifteen minutes of such treatment White sighed deeply, shivered from head to foot, and awoke.

Again Becomes Unconscious.

"Good boy. You're all right now," said Dr. Higgins encouragingly. But he was not, for soon he relapsed into unconsciousness. This time his eyes were open and stared vacantly straight before him. Dr. Higgins patiently resumed his treatment and brought his patient to himself again.

Wednesday night Dr. Higgins said
White was recovering slowly.

KAISER'S SECRETARY DIES.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—Privy Councillor Albert Meissner, principal private secretary to Emperor William throughout the latter's reign, died today. From the first of the councillor's illness the emperor inquired daily regarding his condition and accompanied his inquiries with gifts of flowers and rare wines. Today he telegraphed to the widow saying that he wished her to know how much he missed Meissner "to whom I gave my complete confidence."

Meissner was a man of large wealth but lived simply and gave fifty-four years of service to the state. Outside of his official duties he found recreation in the management of charities and co-operating with others in the conduct of industrial schools.

NAVY WILL CONDUCT EXPERIMENTS IN WIRELESS

Attempt Will be Made to Transmit Messages 3,000 Miles.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The navy is soon to conduct experiments in a long distance wireless telegraphy. Impressed with the importance of a system which will in cases of necessity transmit messages from some place on the Atlantic seaboard a distance of 3,000 miles, the subject was taken up in earnest almost a year ago.

The desirability of such long distance communication, the officials say, is obvious for in times of war it would prove invaluable to the government. By its means the navy department would be able to control and direct readily from shore the movements of the fleet. This, together with the proposition to install wireless apparatus on ships so that they may be able to communicate with each other at a distance of 1,000 miles, will put the government in the position where directions given to one vessel may be quickly transmitted to another.

Will Attempt 3,000 Miles.

The experiments in communicating 3,000 miles are to take place at Brantrock, Mass., beginning probably late in December. Instruments constructed for this purpose have been installed in a tower over 400 feet high. Two scout cruisers, the Salem and the Birmingham, are to be utilized as receiving stations. Repairs to these vessels now under way will be completed December 4, soon after which they will leave the United States for a trip which will keep them within a radius of 3,000 miles of Brantrock, the present program contemplating a cruise from the Scottish coast downward to the West African coast and also in the American tropics. Meanwhile messages will be sent to each of these vessels, both of which have been equipped with ten kilowatt power receiving apparatus capable, it is asserted, of recording the long distance communications. At the same time the vessels will exchange messages for the purpose of testing the apparatus for communication 1,000 miles at sea. Strict requirements were laid down by the navy department in the specifications inviting proposals for constructing the proposed high-powered station as well as for the apparatus aboard ships. The messages from shore must not be interrupted by atmospheric disturbances or unintentional or intentional interference by neighboring systems. The messages also must be transmitted with entire secrecy. The apparatus aboard ships must be capable of transmitting and receiving messages at all times, in all seasons and in all latitudes for 1,000 miles and to receive messages from the high-powered station for 3,000 miles at all times.

Upon the result of these experiments will rest the question of the erection by the navy of a wireless tower at Washington, D. C., as contemplated originally, that in Massachusetts belonging to a private company.

OVERWORK AND WORRY BLAMED

FOR A LARGE PERCENTAGE OF WOMAN'S ILLS.

A Newark, N. Y., Woman Tells How Relief and Cure May Be Obtained.

"If suffering women only knew of the relief they can get from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills they would never neglect taking them," says Mrs. Garrison Craver, of No. 104 West Union street, Newark, N. Y. "I doctored with several doctors for months but found no relief for weakness common to my sex. My trouble was probably due to overwork and I first noticed it coming on when I began to get nervous. I soon began to have nervous chills, which were something like the ague. I had dull aching pains in my back, which often kept me awake at night. My sleeplessness was also partly due to the nervousness. I suffered with headaches through my temples and forehead. I was frequently dizzy, especially in the morning, and then would be dreadfully sick. I had palpitation of the heart. Many times I would be so sick that I could not work."

A CHILD SWALLOWS BOX OF TABLETS AND DIES

Medicine Was for Mother's Use and the Little One Found It on Table.

Peru, Ind., Oct. 22.—Agnes, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Sattie, living north of Peru, Mexico, died yesterday, as the result of accidentally taking a quantity of strychnine tablets. The tablets were procured by Mrs. Sattie several days ago for nervousness, and Thursday morning after she had taken one Mrs. Sattie, unaware of the danger, laid them upon a table. The baby was playing about in the room and incidentally got hold of the box. Mistaking the tablets for something good to eat, the child swallowed the contents of the box, and when Mrs. Sattie returned to the room she found the little one deathly sick. The empty box lay on the floor, and realizing the danger she immediately called assistance.

A physician was hard to procure at that moment and without hesitating the child was carried to the home of Dr. Rannels, at Mexico. Everything possible was done to save the baby's life, but it was useless, and the child died at the physician's home.

POLICE BOARD ASKS A VAN WERT GIRL MUNCIE MAYOR TO CLOSE SALOONS

Action Taken by Commissioners Based on Riotous Conditions.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 22.—Because of the disorder, rowdiness and intolerant conditions prevailing at the nine remaining saloons in Muncie, the police commissioners last night decided to request Mayor Guthrie to issue a proclamation closing these places in advance of the expiration of their licenses under the process of the county option law. There are nine saloons remaining here and they have been reaping a rich harvest. Under the operation of the law the last saloon must close November 16.

The board has been considering the law in the case and believes that under the statutes of the state of Indiana, the mayor of any city or town has the power to close any and all saloons when in his judgment the peace of the public is disturbed through their agency.

The action of the board is based on the riotous and unlawful conditions prevailing at the majority of these saloons, especially on Saturday nights, when the police, even though doing extra duty, the day men augmenting the night patrolmen, find themselves pushed to the limit in enforcing order and attending to and looking after the disturbers and rough element.

It is known that the mayor is not in sympathy with the saloons and, as the board appointed by him has gone on record, it would not be surprising to see the chief executive of the city order a part or all of the saloons closed permanently. At least the owners of the more offensive places will be warned and their licenses revoked on the first repetition of trouble and disgraceful scenes which have marked these places during the last few weeks.

A VAN WERT GIRL WAS MARRIED IN CALIFORNIA

Her Wealth Scared Groom Away on Eve of First Intended Marriage.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 22.—The romance of a young couple, whose marriage was planned twelve months ago in Van Wert, Ohio, and which was postponed because the girl and man were afraid to risk their love in matrimony, as they professed, was revealed yesterday when Russ L. Miss Culp, the daughter of a millionaire furniture manufacturer in Van Wert, Ohio, proposed to Brown while he was employed as a mechanic. She was a student at a fashionable school.

He refused to marry because of her wealth, and fled on the eve of the wedding. Detectives traced him here, and after explanations the ceremony was performed. Papa Culp returned home yesterday happy.

DR. ROSS ON STAND.

Is Witness for Himself in Murder Case at Muncie.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 22.—The salient feature of the trial of Dr. Nelson C. Ross, in the Delaware circuit court, on a charge of having murdered Daniel Linder, a Muncie-Portland traction conductor, last August, a short distance northeast of Muncie, was the appearance on the witness stand of the defendant himself, shortly before adjournment yesterday afternoon. IN THE THEATERS

"THE GOLDEN BUTTERFLY"

According to entirely trustworthy reports, there is a rare treat in store for all who witness the performance of Grace Van Studdford in "The Golden Butterfly" at the Majestic tonight. This latest comic opera by Smith and De Koven is unquestionably one of the best that has been done in this country during the past twenty years. Its record as a drawing attraction is without parallel in the history of comic opera, and the encomiums which have been bestowed upon the star leave no doubt as to the hold that the fair singer has upon the people.

The opera will be presented with an immense company of singers and the company's own special orchestra. Pictorially it is said to be a constantly changing series of kaleidoscopic splendors, accomplished by the deft manipulation of electrical contrivances, with a vast display of varied colored costumes as the background.

Harry Von Tilzer, who has written the music for "The Kissing Girl" the new musical play which comes to the Majestic theater Saturday, matinee and night, is said to have written a greater number of popular songs and musical numbers than any other living composer. These have ranged from classical ballads to rag-time jingles, and from dreamy waltzes to capering gallops, until a catalogue of his compositions makes a good-sized volume. In "The Kissing Girl" Mr. Von Tilzer is said to have done his best work, and as his score comprehends some twenty odd numbers it may be expected that he has several that will be sung and whistled for months to come.

Stanislaus Stange is not only one of the youngest but perhaps the most prolific of American librettists and adapters. One of his first successes was the book of "Madelaine" or "The Magic Kiss," which made for Camille d'Arville her first great success. Subsequently he adapted "Que Vadis" for the stage and it made a fortune for all concerned. "The Wedding Day," in which Lillian Russell, Jeff d'Angelle and Della Fox jointly starred; "Dolly Varden" for Lulu Glaser; "The Jolly Musketeer" for Jeff d'Angelle; "Love's Lottery" for Madame Schumann Heink and "The Chocolate Soldier," just now the reigning success in New York, are from his busy pen. Mr. Stange is enthusiastic over "The Kissing Girl" and since he has staged it himself, with Charles Jones looking after the dances and figurations, and the work has been selected to dedicate the new Court theater in Chicago, Fort Wayne players apparently have a treat in store when it comes to the Majestic theater.

Dodson in "The House Next Door." Mr. J. E. Dodson, the distinguished English character actor who has scored such a genuine success in J. Hartley Manners' comedy, "The House Next Door," will fulfill an engagement of one performance at the Majestic theater on Tuesday evening, Oct. 28.

"The House Next Door" has been one of New York's biggest comedy hits for the past two seasons and comes to Fort Wayne direct from Powers' theater in Chicago, where it has just completed a most successful engagement of several weeks. Mr. Dodson will be supported by the original company that has surrounded him ever since he became a star under the direction of Messrs. Cohan and Harris. They form a dignified list of artistic players and include Mr. Frank Losee, Mr. Herbert Standing, Mr. J. Malcom Dunn, Mr. Regan Hughton, Mr. A. T. Hendon, Mr. W. S. Simms, Miss Olive Temple, Miss Ruth Chester, Miss Fania Marriot and Miss Lorena Atwood.

BUT TWO PERFORMANCES.

Our Own Stock Company in "Who Goes There" Monday

The home appearance of Our Own

Stock company next week will be limited to a single day—Monday—when Manager Rice's players will be seen in matinee and evening performances of "Who Goes There." This is the famous DeSouchet comedy which pleased immensely when given at the Majestic by the road company four years ago, and it will be recalled as one long, continued laugh. Mr. Jones will be seen as "Topsy" Newman, the character made famous by Walter Perkins in the original production of "Who Goes There."

AT THE LYRIC.
Funny amateur contest at the Lyric tonight will no doubt pack this popular theater at both shows, as the novelty for tonight is the siring chewing contest—something new—besides the specialty to be presented by Andrew Johnson, which is a guaranteed laugh. There will be three other amateur numbers. Three new pictures, a new song and the entire program of excellent vaudeville acts that have pleased crowded houses the fore part of the week.

SUFFERERS AT SEA DRIVEN NEAR TO CANNIBALISM

Fifty Were Without Food for Days in Gulf of Aden—Rescued.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 22.—Death from thirst and starvation or by a more horrible method was near fifty men and women huddled in a little vessel when the British steamship Welsh Prince, Capt. Sheppard, brought them succor. News of the rescue came to Boston yesterday with the arrival of the Welsh Prince from China. Chief Officer St. John declares the sufferers were nearly driven to cannibalism when the Welsh Prince, forced miles from its course by gales, chanced to fall in with the craft.

The vessel was sighted in the gulf of Aden. It was acting strangely. Its canvas was not properly set and it appeared in trouble. Men and women were leaning over the deck rails. Several men were trying to launch a boat; but they lacked the strength. At least twenty men swayed at the tackle and worked on the boat which slowly tilted across the rail and dropped into the sea. Three of the stranger's crew tumbled into the boat, dragged themselves to the seats, and began slowly to row toward the steamship.

Rowers Faint from Weakness. As the boat approached the freighter's officers saw the oarsmen were weak and haggard. Presently the boat crept close to the high sides of the Welsh Prince. Two of the men toppled from the seats and lay motionless. The third looked up at the throng gathered at the ship's rail and tried to speak.

His voice could not carry the forty feet. Chief Officer St. John shouted to a deck hand to fetch a bucket of water, which was lowered. Some of the water slopped and splattered the man's face. A faint wall came from his parched lips and he reeled as if about to fall. Another cupful of water splashed from the unsteady bucket, now close above his head. It struck his face and some trickled between his lips.

Fight for Bucket of Water. When the bucket landed in the boat he thrust his head into it and, revived by a copious draught, roused his companions, scooping water into their faces with his hands. Like mad men the swarthy trio fought to immerse their heads in the bucket.

Other buckets of water were hurriedly sent down, so that each might drink his fill. The men then haltingly told their story. For weeks they had been buffeted by gales on a passage from Africa to Arabia. Headway toward their destination was impossible. Calms closely followed the gales till the vessel was unable to approach the land. For ten days they had been without water, many of the large party aboard having succumbed to exhaustion. The others were desperate to a point of cannibalism, but none was strong enough to overpower a fellow sufferer, and so this horror was spared them.

Water and food were supplied to the vessel by the Welsh Prince.

THEY GROW HAIR

Certain Ingredients if Properly Combined, Stimulate Human Hair Growth.

Research is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered. Betanaphthol is a most powerful, yet absolutely safe germicide and antiseptic, which prevents development of germ matter, and creates a clean, healthy condition.

Pilocarpine, although not a coloring matter or dye, is an ingredient well established for its power to restore natural color to human hair.

Borax, because of its well-defined softening and cleansing properties, is most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Glycerine acts as a stimulant to the hair bulbs, and has a soothing, healing and nourishing influence. Alcohol is indispensable in medicine because of its antiseptic, stimulating and preservative qualities.

Rehall "33" Hair Tonic is chiefly composed of these ingredients, which are compounded in a peculiar form, and we believe it is the most effective remedy known to medical science for scalp and hair troubles generally. We personally guarantee it to eradicate dandruff and scalp irritations and to grow hair, even though the scalp is spots is bare of hair, providing of course there is life and vitality remaining in the hair roots.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease, dandruff or loss of hair to try Rehall "33" Hair Tonic. If it does not remove dandruff and promote a growth of hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid us for it. This guarantee is printed on every package. It has effected most satisfactory results in 93 out of 100 cases where put to a practical test.

Rehall "33" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike and in every particular different from anything else we know of for the purpose for which it is recommended. We urge you to try it at our entire risk. Certainly we could offer no better guarantee. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Sold in Fort Wayne only at our store—The Rexall Store. Meyer Bros. Co., three drug stores.

1,000,000 FIGS.
Enormous Quantity of the California Fruit Just Received in Fort Wayne.

A million figs! Who, not stopping to investigate, would believe that Fort Wayne people would devour such a quantity in a short time? Yet one Fort Wayne firm imports that number of the delicious fruit two or three times every year.

A large freight car is now standing on The Perfection Biscuit Company's private siding waiting to be unloaded. This car is loaded to its capacity with nothing in the world but figs. There are 40,000 pounds of them, and as there are about twenty-five figs to the pound, this will mean a total of at least a million.

What is more surprising, The Perfection Biscuit company uses most of these figs in but one product, their "fig bar." An officer of the company stated that these million figs will make 2,700,000 of these fig bars, and figuring that they import only two carloads of figs within the year, it means that the people of Fort Wayne and vicinity eat more than 5,000,000 fig bars in a year.

The immensity of this firm's business can be only partially realized by reading these figures, as fig bar is only one of 188 different products they put out.

The freight alone on this car of figs from Fresno, Cal., to Fort Wayne was over $500.

President S. F. Bowser, of the Bowser company, has returned from a business trip in the east, which consumed a month.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. F. E. Davidson, Rutland, Vt.

Almost Persuaded. International Bible Lesson for October 24, 1909. (Acts 28:28.)

Paul, the apostle, has now to be considered as Paul the prisoner. Henceforth, to the end of life, he carries the chain of bondage. He knows how to sympathize with all who are oppressed and unjustly accused. He is not the first, nor the last man who sleeps in a cell and is branded as a criminal, while absolutely innocent of guilt.

At Caesarea Governor Felix kept him two whole years in military custody. To be sure he was not confined in prison, neither was he out on bail, but he was put in the care of a soldier who was held responsible for him when wanted. At the end of that period Felix, the governor, was himself called to Rome to answer complaints against his administration, and a new ruler, Festus, was appointed in his place. Three days after assuming office Festus went to Jerusalem on his first visit, and the very first complaint that he heard was this old trouble about Paul. The crafty knaves who had planned the first conspiracy, asked that the apostle might be brought to Jerusalem, intending to assassinate him on his way thither. But again these "black hand" rascals are defeated in their purpose. Festus appoints a new trial at Caesarea.

Appeal to Caesar.

At this preliminary hearing Paul, who has come to the conclusion that he cannot hope for a fair trial in Judea, falls back upon his rights as a Roman citizen, and appeals unto Caesar. The pronunciation of the single word Appello, was sufficient to transfer all further proceedings from the provincial tribunal to the Emperor.

While the governor waited an opportunity to forward his prisoner, he was visited by his royal neighbor Agrippa, and his sister Bernice. Herod Agrippa II. was a Jew. His father, Herod Agrippa I., in this very city of Caesarea had died a tragic death, eaten alive by worms. He was the grandson of that Herod who had been delighted John the Baptist, and the great grandson of the Herod who slew the children of Bethlehem at the birth of Christ. Therefore, he halted with delight the opportunity of seeing and hearing the most brilliant teacher and preacher that Christianity had produced. Accordingly a brilliant audience gathered in the judgment hall, and Paul was given the opportunity of telling the story of his conversion to christianity and his subsequent 25 years of missionary service.

The Point at Issue.

After an introduction of singular grace Paul comes at once to the point at issue. He puts the whole charge into a nutshell. His enemies had thrown a great deal of dust into the eyes of his judges in their frantic efforts to get rid of him, but Paul in a single sentence goes straight to the heart of the matter, and affirms that it is on account of the hope held by the Jews themselves that he is now judged. It was the great promise of the Old Testament, viz., the coming of the Messiah. The whole Jewish nation believed God's promise of Messiah, and looked and longed for it. And the only reason for their hatred and persecution of Paul was the fact that he taught that Jesus of Nazareth whom they had crucified, was that Messiah.

Dodging the Truth.

Both Paul's auditors are moved, but both in a different way dodge responsibility. Festus, the heathen, can account for the apostle's earnestness in no other way than on the ground of a "brain storm." He cries out, "Much theological study has turned your head." And Agrippa, the zealous Jew, sneeringly says, "With but little persuasion thou wouldst fain make me a christian." (Revised Version). The Roman official scoffed in one way, the intelligent blue-blooded Jew sneered in another. But they both dodged the truth.

Paul is not the only man who has been stigmatized as a lunatic. Dwight L. Moody was nicknamed "Crazy Moody" before the world came to recognize the method of his madness. If there were more crazy people, after the pattern of Paul, the world would sit up and take notice. The knees of corrupt judges would knock together again with Felix, and new Agrippas, hard, selfish, bigoted, would again feel the force of the spiritual earnestness of the soldiers of the cross. If modern disciples felt as profoundly the revolutionary doctrine of the birth, life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, there would be a mighty host of believers ready to cry out with the apostle, "I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am."

THE SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

ZIMMERMAN SEES PROSPERITY.

Says Country Is on Eve of Best Times in History.

Eugene Zimmerman, president of the Ann Arbor road and former president and chief owner of the C. H. & D. property, has just returned from a trip abroad and is very optimistic in his views of the business conditions of the country and particularly as they affect railways. "The railways are already feeling the shortage of cars," said Mr. Zimmerman, "and the Ann Arbor company has just placed an order for 500 steel cars, 300 box cars, twelve locomotives and is expending great sums of money in developing its coal and ore docks, expecting a rush of business that will warrant such improvement. I have just returned from abroad, where conditions are showing the same marked improvement. I look for several years of the best times in the history of the world." Mr. Zimmerman was out inspecting the Ann Arbor and the Detroit, Toledo and Ironport railroads when he made the above statements.

EASY TO BE BEAUTIFUL.

Secret of Perfect Complexion Told by a Woman Who Knows.

To the Editor:
I want to tell all the women readers of The Sentinel (and the men, too, for that matter), of a remarkable discovery that will clear the complexion of all pimples, blackheads, liver spots and the other blemishes that make many a life miserable.
It is called Margo. I bought 50 cents worth at Meyer Bros. Co. and I used it only a few days when my skin became so clear and rosy that I looked years younger. I do not know as I would have tried it if they had not said they would refund my money if it did not do what I expected, but they will not have to give me back anything; in fact, I am going to get another box and completely drive away the last pimple.

Please print this in a prominent place, for I want other women to know as much about getting a beautiful complexion as

The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton will soon be in the market for a number of passenger and freight engines. The company is badly in need of heavy freight and passenger engines for its through service, and the new general superintendent is taking steps looking to the purchase of new engines to handle the various branches of traffic.

R. & I. railway. The good wishes of a host of friends go with them."

Pugh, who served in the respective capacities of station agent, passenger conductor, train dispatcher, general agent, general superintendent, general manager and vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, commenced work for the company October 1, 1889, and has been continuously in service over fifty years. Mr. Pugh is now first vice president of the company and has charge of the purchasing, real estate and insurance departments.

Glenn H. Curtiss Describes the New Sport of Flying

How would you like to fly? You can—right now. Just choose your machine—get aboard and sail away. Great sport! No longer a mere stunt or acrobatic feat, but something any careful person may do as well and safely as driving an automobile.

So says Glenn H. Curtiss who won the recent international aeroplane contest at Rheims, France—in an immensely interesting and practical article, illustrated with splendid pictures of the most recent flights.

Cures Eczema Quickly

New Discovery Has Revolutionized the Treatment of Skin Diseases.

Nothing in the history of medicine has ever approached the success of the marvelous skin remedy known as poslam, which, it is safe to say, has cured more cases of eczema and skin diseases than any remedy ever offered for these ills.

The success of poslam is not at all surprising when it is considered that even a very small quantity applied to the skin stops itching immediately and cures chronic cases in two weeks. The very worst cases of eczema, as well as acne, herpes, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, crusted humors, scaly scalp and every form of itch, yield to it readily. Blemishes such as pimples, red noses, muddy and inflamed skin disappear almost immediately when poslam is applied, the complexion being cleared over night.

Every druggist keeps both the 50-cent size (for minor troubles) and the $2 jar, and either of these may be obtained in Fort Wayne at Meyer Bros. Co., as well as other reliable drug stores.

But no one is even asked to purchase poslam without first obtaining an experimental package which will be sent by mail, free of charge, upon request, by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

TALE OF SAGE AND LOVER.

Matrimony Sought by the Foolish Only.
Humanity Hard to Satisfy in the Case of the Mistaken Traveler—The Officeholder That Was Too Honest.

By M. QUAD.

(Copyright, 1909, by Associated Literary Press.)

A HOUSEHOLDER who had suffered considerable damage by rats borrowed a trap of a neighbor and had the good luck to catch one of his annoyers. He was drawing water to fill a tub and make a case of drowning when the rat called out:

"Don't be in such a hurry about this thing. I want to talk a little."

"But you are a doomed rat," was the reply.

"Oh, as to that I'm not kicking. We've all got to go some time or other."

"But what do you desire to say?"

"This is a borrowed trap, isn't it?"

"It is."

"And the bait you caught me with was only a piece of old bacon instead of mellow cheese?"

"That is a fact."

"I was made a fool of and am ready to admit it, but don't you see you are in the same boat? I'm going to be called a fool for getting into the trap, while your neighbor is going to call you a fool for not catching two of us at the same time."

"Yes, that's just like Jones, but what shall we do about it?"

"Why, I'll have to go and hunt up my brother to make the other one."

Moral—The rat was set at liberty and didn't come back, of course.

The Sage and the Lover.
One day as the sage was resting on the seashore and watching the champagne corks from the Lusitania hit the beach he was approached by a young man, who said:

"O sage, I have walked many a weary mile to ask you a few questions."

"You are in love, I suppose?" was the query.

"Truly, but thou knowest everything."

The Mistaken Traveler.
A traveler who was abroad on a highway on a dark night came to a place where a lighted lantern was swinging from the limb of a tree, and he said to himself:

"Now, this is a thing that shows the consideration of one man for another. He that put this lantern here knew that a belated traveler would be in need of a guide. I would that I could see him and give him my blessing."

Five steps beyond the lantern the wayfarer tumbled head first into a raging creek, and it was only after a great struggle that he managed to land on the other side and save his life. Seeing a cottage near at hand, he hailed it, and directly the owner came out and said:

"Why, man, how did you come here?"

"I fell in."

"But why fall in?"

"Was it you that hung the lantern on a limb up there?"

"It was."

"Then you planned for me to fall in. I took it, of course, that it was a signal to cross at that spot."

"Alas, but how one's actions can be misconstrued! I hung the lantern there to signify that you must walk down the bank half a mile before attempting to cross."

"Then why not put a lantern here also?"

"But that would have signified that you were to cross the creek twice instead of once."

Moral—Nothing quite satisfies humanity.

The Honest Officeholder.
Upon being elected to office as an honest man a citizen said to himself:

"Verily, I have lived honest all my life, and now I will not depart from my record. They shall find that they made no mistake in electing me."

With fashions changing as quickly as they are, it is necessary to as quickly introduce new corset models. As a matter of interest we would state that the corset models are introduced in conjunction with dress styles.

We, therefore, find it necessary to introduce to our customers a number of new Redfern Models, designed as the correct base for the various styles conceived from the Moen age and Louis XV. fashions, which this season strike the very highest fashion note. The defined, elongated waist is the figure fashion for the current season.

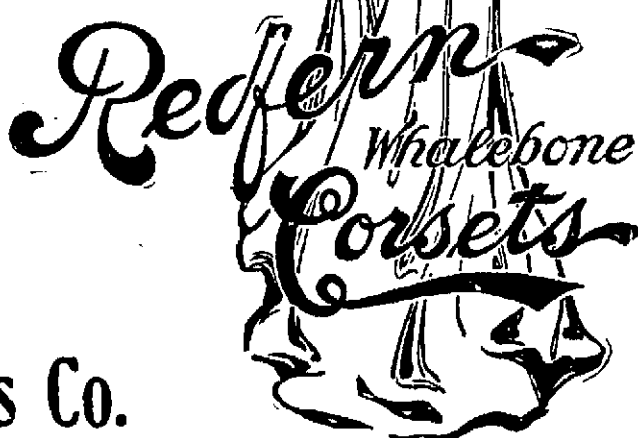

The most approved dress fashions are modernized ideas from the fashions of Louis XV. period—panniers straight and draped—the very long waist, almost basque in effect, with the draped skirts—any one of them shows the defined waist.

We have with us this week a costeller, pupil of the designer of Redfern Models, who will demonstrate to our customers individually the adaptability of Redfern Shapes to this season's fashions. Her services are without charge, and a purchase is not obligatory.

Redfern Models are boned with purest Arctic Whalebone, the superior of any other boning product.

Miss Grieves is here from October 21 to 27.

CAME TO SAY GOOD-BYE.

Letter From Perry Huber, Suicide, to His Mother, is Found.

That the suicide of Perry Huber, who fired a bullet into his head while in the Rossmore restaurant Wednesday evening, was due to the fact that he was disappointed with his future outlook, and that he came back to Fort Wayne to bid his mother a final farewell, is indicated by a letter discovered yesterday by Coroner Kessler. The letter was addressed to Huber's mother, and reads:

"Dear Mother: 'I came to Fort Wayne with the intention of bidding you good-bye forever. Now mother, do forgive me for the rash act I am about to commit, as I have been disappointed in my future life and I will bid you and the whole world good-bye.

"PERRY HUBER.

"905 Barr street, city."

The letter had been left lying on a show case in the restaurant and was evidently the one written by Huber an hour before he fired the fatal shot.
